for
CHILD HEALTH DAY

WHEREAS, the President of the United States is requested to proclaim May 1st as Child Health Day and

WHEREAS, the Governors of South Dakota and other states have for many years issued such a proclamation to their people, and

WHEREAS, the future of our country depends on the physical fitness of our children,

I, Tom Berry, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1st as Child Health Day.

"Mothers and Babies First," has been taken as the theme for 1933 and I urge that all organizations, all teachers and all interested in the progress of humanity, of the United States, and of South Dakota plan for this season some work to promote the Health and Welfare of Mothers and Babies.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of South Dakota.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Pierre, this 8th day of March, 1933.

Tom Berry
Governor.
